*OPENING HYMN: NCH 164
“Arise, Your Light is Come”

*CALL TO CONFESSION: (Written in 1994)
The Epiphany season celebrates God’s inclusiveness.
The mystery of Jesus Christ is revealed, not to an elite few; but to the whole world. Yet we continue to build barriers to protect our own interests and keep others at a distance. If loyalty to God calls for accepting and embracing all God's children in love, we have much to confess.

*UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION:

God of light, we admit our retreat into the shadows of pretension and exclusion. How often we choose to associate with people who are like us and then look down on others who differ from us. It is easier to discover their sins than to admit our own.

We judge the poor and join their oppressors, while you call us to identify with those in need, that all may prosper together. We imagine that we alone are faithful stewards of your grace, while you welcome, as fellow saints with us, many whom we ignore. Save us from our earthbound judgments, that we may look up and be guided by the star that draws all people to yourself. Awed by your forgiving presence, we fall down to worship you. Amen.

Moment for silent personal confession.

*ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS: Through faith in Jesus Christ, we can come to Almighty God in boldness and confidence, assured of the gift of grace and empowerment of the Spirit. Lift up your eyes to see the glory of God. Receive light and healing, for God has come to dwell in us and among us. Let your hearts rejoice and your faces be radiant as we share the abundance of God's love.

We are forgiven. Thanks be to God.

*GLORIA: NCH 759

and the glory forever. Amen.

world. With concern for those who are poor, oppressed, and needy, we rededicate ourselves as helpers and advocates. Out of devotion to Christ, we commit our best, that the church may bear witness among the principalities and powers of this world.
Help us all, O God, to be faithful stewards. Amen.
