Pastor Rosemary Captain

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Jesus brought sight to many blind people he encountered while he was on earth. He continues to open the eyes of many even now, by showing us a better way to live. Jesus brought light into our darkness. Sister Joan Chittister recently wrote about ways to see.

“Life is about learning to see what we’re looking at—if we actually see it at all. It takes a while, but eventually, the really perceptive soul discovers that there are actually five ways of seeing as we go through life.

“At the first level of insight, we see only what’s in front of us. The immediate becomes the center of the world. We do not see beyond ourselves because we have drawn the circle of life too small, too close, too narrowly. The older next-door neighbor, the colleague with the sick child, the friend whose life is careening off the tracks are part of my consciousness—but not part of my heart. Their agendas do not compel me to action. Their lives do not really touch mine.

“At the second level of insight, we see only the obvious, not what drives the obvious. Not what’s under the obvious. We come to see that the other has the same feelings we do and that, like ours, they need to be heeded. We see more of the world suddenly, but find it as lonely and confused as our own.

“At the third level of insight, we see a broader world, but only from our own perspective. Everyone should live in a democracy, we decide. The whole world would be better off if everyone were like us. We are the acme of the universe, we know. Then, all of our efforts go into making the rest of the world like us. Except that never happens and we cannot for the life of us figure out why.

“At the fourth level of insight, we see a changing canvas and realize suddenly that nothing is stable, all things are in flux. The question, of course, is whether we realize that we, too, are in the process of change now—because we have seen that nowhere does life stand still.

“At the fifth level of insight, we learn to truly see beyond the center of the self and find that we are all alike, all trying to find one another, all wishing to be human together.

“At that point, of course, we see our differences and find that they are beautiful—and see our likenesses and discover that they are the stuff of our growth. We do not need to be anyone else now. Instead, we can be everyone else now, understanding them, learning from them—trusting that I can change and become even more myself at the same time.

“The question, of course, is, at what level of insight are we now? What will it take to grow beyond ourselves and discover the rest of life?”

Thank You

THANK YOU ALL for the cards and prayers. A special thank you to Pastor Rosemary for being with me before my surgery and being with daughter, Amy, during my surgery. And it can't go without saying a big thank you to Donna Isselhard for volunteering as my sub while I'm recuperating. Ginny Ganschinietz

TOTENFEST

Sunday, November 20, 2022 is the last Sunday of the Church Year and, in the old German tradition, is the day for remembering those who have passed and whose funeral service was held during the last Church Year. Totenfest, literally, the festival of the Dead, is the time set aside in the service to name our sisters and brothers who no longer answer the call in this life, to commemorate their passing with a rose and a candle, and to offer special prayers of thanksgiving for their journey with us on this earth.

This year we will remember Jim Garrett, Donna Logsdon, Judy Hartmann, Ardella Morris, Esther V. Henry (friend of Pastor Rosemary).

EVENING CIRCLE

Ladies of St. John, After worship join us on November 13 in the "L" room for our monthly Evening Circle Meeting. Members are reminded to bring their "Thank Offerings" for OCWM (Our Churches Wider Mission). We will discuss our Christmas meeting and do a small craft project. Lastly, Jackie Canterbury won the prize for our Fall word scramble. See you all soon. Eileen Gammon, Co-Chair

KINDERCOTTAGE CHRISTMAS CHILD

Presents should be prewrapped this year and sticky memo on package so Evening Circle knows what was bought. Please bring gifts to church by Sunday Dec. 4th. Thank you in advance. You can see her picture posted on the bulletin boards in church. Eileen Gammon, Co-Chair

HIGHLIGHTS OF ANNUAL MEETING OF THE ILLINOIS SOUTH CONFERENCE, OCTOBER 15, 2022

Sue Williams and I attended this meeting held at St. John UCC, Collinsville, IL. It was a worshipful and musical event. Inspirational music and lyrics were heard throughout the event, performed by “The Many”, a group from Chicago.

The business of the meeting was introduced in the morning and voted and ruled on in the afternoon. Delegates voted especially on two topics. First, to become a W.I.S.E. Conference for Mental Health (Welcoming, Inclusive, Supportive, and Engaged). To learn more, go to www.mhn-ucc.org. The second delegate vote was for the conference to gradually discontinue investing in fossil fuels.

The total “noisy offering” for disaster ministries, which our St. John contributed to, came to $3,463.

The food was great, including 33 dozen cookies! It was good to feel the Holy Spirit moving among us—the Spirit of LOVE!
